Health Action by People (HAP) is a not-for-profit organization based in Trivandrum, Kerala, South India. Our area of focus is health advocacy, public health research and health policy interventions in the state of Kerala. It is led by a group of professionals sharing a common vision of thinking globally & acting locally. Under the founder, the late Dr. CR Soman, HAP began operating on 1st December 1993 as a platform for young scientists and researchers to explore the scope of research in the public health sector in Kerala and India. Our current focus is on research promotion initiatives like short courses as part of continuing education, research methodology & paper writing workshops, journal clubs, and so on. We are also currently collaborating in a couple of major national and international research efforts.
